STUDENT LIFE

Students are the future of every country. They are young citizens of our society, full of infinite energy and progressive ideas, fantastic plans and noble ambitions, hopes and dreams.

Students learn subjects, which they are interested in, but they have certain duties to perform and the primary one is studying hard to gain knowledge for the future career, to attend all the classes, to be punctual and disciplined.

Sessions at the end of each semester is quite tough for students. They spend endless days and nights on studying and cramming.

Some students manage to deal with part-time jobs because they need a lot of money to study at University. Students should also go in for sports to stay in good health and mood. They say: "A sound mind lives in a sound body." Social life broadens student's mind, develops talents and communication skills. During their studies, many of them make many true friends.

2. Подготовить монологическое высказывание по теме: Значение английского языка в профессии юрист.

Тексты заданий для зачёта.

MY FRIEND

I have many friends but my best friend is Peter. He is fifteen. Now we are first year students of the technical school. He is a good student because he studies hard and is very diligent. He wants to become a good specialist. He often helps me with my English lessons and I'm grateful to him for that. We made friends with Peter when he and his family moved to our house. We have very much in common: we like the same music, we both like reading. Now a few words about his appearance. He is rather tall, strong and well built. He has an oval face, straight nose, dark-brown hair, blue eyes and a nice smile. People find him good-looking. Peter is a good sportsman. He goes in for sports. He knows that sport makes people healthy, keeps them fit, more organised and better disciplined. He plays football and basketball well. He is a member of our university's basketball sports team.

WORKING DAY MORNING

I am a first-year student of the University. Now, let me describe my usual working day. My classes begin at half past eight. So on weekdays I have to get up at seven o'clock. My alarm clock usually wakes me up and my working day begins. I do my morning exercises, take a shower and brush my teeth. After that I get dressed and comb my hair. Then I have breakfast. Honestly speaking I do not like traditional breakfasts, I prefer a cup of tea and a sandwich. I love to listen to the latest news on TV while I am eating. I leave the house at ten minutes past eight and walk to the nearest bus stop. I live rather far from the University and it usually takes me about a quarter of an hour to get there by bus. Sometimes when the weather is fine and I have enough time, I walk to the University. We take a lot of subjects at school. My favourite subjects are English and Law.

OUR CLASSES

I am a student of the University of Justice. Every day we have practical classes in numerous theoretical and special subjects. As a rule, we have three or four classes' a day. We have lectures in different subjects. Usually I don't miss my classes because I want to pass my examinations successfully. At twelve o'clock we have a big interval for lunch. That's my favourite time. That is the time to share the latest news with my friends. I prefer not to go to the canteen and we often have lunch in a small cafe not too far from the college. At one o'clock we have to be back to our classes. During the working day we also have several short intervals that last ten minutes. From time to time I have to stay at the University because I go to the library to get ready for my practical classes or to write a report. As a rule, I have no free time on weekdays. So by the end of the week I get very tired. Sometimes I come home at about 7 o'clock.

LEGAL PROFESSION

Lawyers are very important in our society. They help people too assert their rights. That is exactly what I want to do in future. It is not easy to be a lawyer. This job is in great demand. It is necessary to keep in mind a lot of information, prepare documents thoroughly and it might be stressful to work in a court. Still this profession attracts me. Lawyers work in not only law firms and prosecutor's office. They are also in demand in commercial companies and real estate agencies. They draw up contracts, check correctness of transactions, and help to resolve disputed issues. I like films and books about lawyers as they make me think about the ethical aspect of the profession. A lawyer has to defend his client's interests whatever they are. Sometimes a lawyer may feel that he is on the wrong side, but can't drop the case. I think a lot about it. I hope I will be able to find a job, where I will really help people and serve justice.

OFFICIAL SYMBOLS OF RUSSIA

The national symbols of Russia are a part of the cultural heritage of the country which has given the country its national identity. There are only three official, i.e. authorized by law, symbols of the state. They are flag, emblem and anthem. I'd like to tell you about them.

The first official symbol is the national flag of Russia is a tri colour flag-white colour which lies on the top, blue in the middle and red on the bottom. White stands for nobility and frankness; blue symbolizes loyalty, honesty, chastity and scarlet represents self-sacrifice, generosity and love.

The second official symbol is two-headed eagle. The two heads of the eagle stands for the two parts of vast Russian empire – European and Asian.

The second official symbol is anthem: music by Alexander Alexandrov and the lyrics Sergey Mikhalkov.

NON-OFFICIAL SYMBOLS OF RUSSIA

Matryoshka is the most famous symbol of Russia and the most popular Russian souvenir all around the World. It is a set of wooden dolls nested into each other. The painted image on them is most often a woman wearing traditional Russian costume decorated with flowers and patterns. Matryoshka was first made in Russia at the end of the 19th century Russia was experiencing a rising culture and national identity. The name «matryoshka» comes from the Russian word for “mother” — «МАТЬ» (the Latin root “mater “- mother). The largest doll holds her babies inside So matryoshka is a symbol of motherhood.

Valenki, are Russian national footwear. They are traditionally made of milled fleece. In the 18th century, felt boots were an expensive, luxury gift: Peter the First and Catherine the Great ordered specially made valenki for their personal wardrobes. Balalaika and samovar are also non-official symbols of Russia.

GREAT PEOPLE IN RUSSIA.

Prince Alexander Nevsky (1221 – 1263)

The prince Alexander Nevsky' only lived 42years old, but he had quite a rich and righteous life. Prince Alexander became famous the Battle of the Neva and the Battle of the Ice.

The Neva Battle between the Slavs and the Swedes took place on July 15, 1240, and gave the prince his famous nickname. The battle lasted all day until dusk and ended with the complete defeat of the Swedes.

The Ice Battle which took place on April 5, 1242. This day has gone become in the history of our country as a Day of military glory. Alexander Nevsky's enemies were the Livonian and Teutonic Orders. The Russian troops won the battle: most of the knights of the Teutonic Order fell through the ice of the lake. The Order and Novgorod signed a peace treaty.

The Grand Duke has not lost a single battle in his life. He died in 1263. Now his relics are in the Alexander Nevsky Monastery (St. Petersburg).

FROM HISTORY OF JURISPRUDENCE

Jurisprudence already had this meaning in Ancient Rome, Pontiffs indirectly created a body of laws by their pronunciations on single concrete (judicial) cases. Their sentences were simple interpretations of the traditional customs, soon turned also to a more fair interpretation, adapting the law to the newer social instances.

Under the Roman Republic, schools of law were created, and the activity constantly became more academic. In the age from the early Roman Empire to the 3rd century, a relevant literature was produced by some notable groups including the Proculians and Sabinians. The degree of scientific depth of the studies was unprecedented in ancient times and reached still unrivalled peaks of skill.

During the Byzantine Empire that legal studies were undertaken in depth. It contributed to the birth of the Justinian Corpus Juris Civilis.

BRITISH HOLIDAYS

In the United Kingdom there are two types of them – bank and public holidays. Bank holidays are the days, when all people in the UK have a day off and celebrate a national event. Those days are New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Early May, Spring Bank holiday, Summer Bank holiday, Christmas and Boxing Day.

Public holidays are "Guy Fawkes Night", "Mother's Day", "Remembrance Day", "Valentine's Day" and so on. People usually celebrate them but do not have a day off on these events, unless they fall on weekends.

The main British holiday is Christmas that is celebrated at night of December 24 and 25. Several weeks before the celebration bright Christmas lights are lit up on the streets and skating-rinks are open. A beautiful Christmas tree is set up at Trafalgar Square in London. People spend a lot of time in shops and at flea markets in order to find gifts for their close people.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

There are a number of public holiday in the UK. Let's discuss some of them.

Halloween (October 31) is a yearly celebration observed on October 31. It is dedicated to remembering the dead. This day children will dress up in costumes and go 'trick or treating' around the neighbourhood. They knock on someone's door and say 'Trick or Treat'. The master of the house gives them a treat (usually sweets). Children enjoy the holiday because they go home with a bag of sweets!

Guy Fawkes Night (November 5) is a firework festival associated with the tradition of celebrating Guy Fawkes's failed attempt to blow up the Houses of Parliament in 1605. It is an annual event dedicated to bonfires, fireworks and celebrations.

There are also a few uniquely British holidays, such as Burns Supper in Scotland, dedicated to the poet Robert Burns, or the Queen's Birthday,

STUDENT'S LIFE AT ENGLISH AND AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES

The popular image of student life is of young people with few responsibilities enjoying themselves and doing very little work. This is often not true. Many older people now study at college or university, s These students are often highly motivated and work very hard.

In Britain reduced government support for higher education means that students can no longer rely on having their expenses paid for them. In the US students already have to pay for tuition and room and board. Many of them take part-time jobs during the term and work full-time in the vacations.

Many students in Britain go to a university away from their home town. They usually live in a hall of residence for their first year, and then move into a rented room in a private house or share a house with other students. They may go back home during vacations, but after they graduate most leave home for good

WASHINGTON

Washington, the capital of the United States of America, is situated on the Potomac River in the District of Columbia named in honour of Columbus, the discoverer of America. The first President of the USA -George Washington laid in 1790 the corner-stone of the Capitol, where Congress sits. Washington has a population of 900 000 people. It has many historical places. The largest and tallest is the Capitol with its great House of Representatives and the Senate chamber. There are no skyscrapers in Washington. The two-storied house built in 1799 is White House, the President's residence. Not far from the Capitol is the Washington Monument looking like a very big pencil. It rises 160 metres. The Jefferson Memorial was built in memory of the third President of the USA, Thomas Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence. The Lincoln Memorial devoted to the memory of the 16th President of the US, who gave freedom to Negro slaves in America.

ALTAI STATE PEDAGOGICAL UNIVERSITY

Barnaul is a city of students. The oldest higher educational establishment of Altai Krai is Altai State Pedagogical University. Today it trains teachers, kindergarten teachers, psychologists, social care teachers, speech therapists and other specialists. Altai State Pedagogical University is a federal state budget institution of higher education in Barnaul. It has a long and rich history. Barnaul Teacher Training Institute was founded in 1933. In 1993 Barnaul State Pedagogical Institute received a university status.

Altai State Pedagogical University consists of 5 institutes and 2 faculties. They are Institute of Psychology and Pedagogics, Institute of Physics and Mathematics, Institute of Physical Culture and Sports, Linguistic Institute, History Department and Philology Department. Students can choose full-time or part-time education. About 6000 students study at Altai State Pedagogical University at present.

LEISURE TIME

Nowadays people work all day and rarely have spare time to rest to do something they like. A favourite occupation of a person in his free time is his hobby. There are a lot of things to do that can help people not to feel bored. Many people prefer to go in for different kinds of sports and lead an active way of life. Yoga and Pilates are one of the most popular sporting pursuits for women. Some of them regularly visit fitness clubs. Men like to go to the stadium and to cheer for their favourite team there. Watching TV is, by the way, a very popular pursuit that people choose to pass their free time. Nowadays the perfect way of spending free time is listening to music. People's music interests range from pop and rock music, techno, electronic dance music to classical music and opera. Other popular occupations are visiting museums, art galleries and going to the theatre or cinema. Shopping and cooking are widespread among women.

SAINT PETERSBURG

Saint Petersburg is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. It was founded by Peter the First in 1703. It is situated on 42 islands. The river Neva runs through the city. At night the bridges are raised over the Neva. In May and June, the sun shines very late in the evening. People call these nights the White Nights. Many Russian and foreign architects took part in the construction of the city. The first building was the Peter and Paul fortress designed by Domenico Trezzini.

The magnificent building of the Winter Palace is a masterpiece of another great Italian architect Bartolomeo Rastrelli. Petersburgers and their guests admire the Admiralty of the Russian by architect Zakharov. St. Isaac's Cathedral is the greatest cathedral in Russia. The cathedral is the heaviest building in the city, and its dome is the largest in Russia.

COMMERCIAL LONDON

Probably every visitor is going to do shopping in London. You can see the most fashionable goods from all over the world in stores on Knightsbridge and Bromton Cross (intersection of Fulham Rd and Bromton Rd), Bond Street and Sloane Street. You can buy nice clothes at reasonable prices on Oxford Street and on King Road. The department stores that are most popular are: Harrods, Harley Nichols, Sefbridge, Fortnum & Mason, Marks & Spencer. You might want to visit some of the following Flea markets: Portobello Road market, Petticoat Lane Market, New Caledonian market, and Camden Market. Shopping in London is very interesting, especially for tourists from other countries. It is worth saying that the English really enjoy hunting around for a bargain in the sales, buying something new to wear out on a Saturday night.

THE GOLDEN RING

The Golden Ring is a group of ancient Russian towns and cities that form a curved line. This line begins and ends in Moscow. These towns and cities are an important part of Russian culture. They saw the main events of Russian history. A tour of the Golden Ring gives visitors the opportunity to learn about Russia's past, culture and traditions. Many people believe that the best way to travel around the ring is in an anti-clockwise direction. The classical route is Vladimir → Suzdal → Kostroma → Yaroslavl → Rostov the Great → Pereslavl-Zalessky → Sergiev-Posad. Prince Vladimir Monomakh founded Vladimir in 1108. It became the capital of North-Eastern Russia in the 12th century. It is famous for its beautiful architecture and its peaceful atmosphere. Suzdal is one of the best-preserved ancient towns in Russia.

HOLIDAYS IN THE USA

American holidays are strikingly different in origin and show surprising similarities in the manner of their celebration. Federal holiday in the US is a day when workers have a paid day-off from their jobs. There are some holidays that are not federal holidays but are very popular holidays to celebrate. The first day of January is New Year's Day. When midnight comes, they greet the New Year: people gather in the streets of big cities, they ring bells, blow whistles and automobile horns, some shoot off guns and firecrackers. People in the US sometimes spend this day watching college football games and parades. On the third Monday in January, Americans celebrate Martin Luther King's birthday. Martin Luther King taught people to use peaceful demonstrations to change laws, instead of violence. Many laws were changed because of his work.

AMERICAN FAVOURITE HOLIDAYS

The United States do not celebrate national holidays, but Congress has designated ten legal public holidays, during which most federal institutions are closed and employees do not work. Seven federal legal holidays such as New Year's Day, Washington's Birthday/ Presidents' Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labour Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas are considered to be American favourite holidays. Here are some of them.

Labour Day (first Monday in September) commemorates the contributions of working men and women. For many Americans the holiday marks the end of summer and the beginning of the school year.

Thanksgiving Day (fourth Thursday in November) is a variant of the harvest festivals celebrated. Thanksgiving is usually celebrated at home. It is the occasion for a large festive meal and for expressing thanks for that bounty.

GOVERNMENT AND SOCIETY

England itself does not have a formal government or constitution, and a specifically English role in contemporary government and politics is hard to identify in any formal sense, for these operate on a nationwide British basis. Historically, the English may be credited with the evolution of Parliament, which, in its medieval form, was related to the Anglo-Saxon practice of regular gatherings of notables. The English may also be credited with the glory of the Revolution of 1688, which affirmed the rule of law, parliamentary control of taxation and of the army, freedom of speech, and religious toleration. Freedom of speech and opinion with proper opportunities for reasonable debate form part of the English tradition, but the development of party and parliamentary government took place after the Act of Union of 1707. Unlike Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland, each of which has its own assembly or parliament, regional government does not exist in England.

I AM A CITIZEN OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION

I am a citizen of the Russian Federation or Russia. I am proud of my country and know a lot about Russia. The Russian Federation is the largest country in the world. It occupies about 1/7 of the Earth surface. The country is situated in Eastern Europe, Northern and Central Asia. Its total area is over 17 million square kilometres. The Russian Federation is washed by 12 seas of three oceans: the Arctic, the Atlantic and the Pacific. In the south and in the west the country borders on fourteen countries. It also has a sea-border with the USA. There are no countries in the world where such a great variety of flora and fauna can be found as in our land. Our country has numerous forests, plains and steppes, taiga and tundra, highlands and deserts. Russia is very rich in oil, iron ore, natural gas, copper, nickel and other mineral resources. The capital of Russia Moscow, one of the oldest Russian cities, was founded in . 1147

ENGLISH IS THE LANGUAGE OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNICATION

English is the language of international communication in many areas of life: trade, air and sea transport, tourism, sport and entertainment. Over 337 million people speak English as their first language, and about 350 million people speak it as a second language. America has the largest number of English speakers – over 226 million speak the language as a mother tongue.

India was a British colony for a long time. Now English is the second official language in India. About 3,000 newspapers are published in India in the English language.

English is very popular now. It's the language of computers, science, business and politics. English is also the language of interactional commerce. Over 80 per cent of the world's electronically stored information is in English and two-thirds of the world's scientists read in English.

MIKHAIL LOMONOSOV

Mikhail Vasilyevich Lomonosov (1711-1765) is sometimes called the Russian Leonardo da Vinci. A natural scientist, physicist, chemist, astronomer, poet and painter, he was certainly a man of all talents. Moscow, was also a key city in Lomonosov's life.

The Russian scientist Mikhail Vasilievich Lomonosov was born in 1711, in the village of Denisovka near the town of Kholmogory, Arkhangelsk Gubernia, in the family of fisherman.

Lomonosov was a man of unusual abilities. He made great achievements in the spheres of physics, chemistry, astronomy, geology, geography, linguistics and history. Among the numerous discoveries of Lomonosov was the Law of the Conservation of Mass. Lomonosov himself considered chemistry his "main profession", but he was at the same time the first Russian physicist.

ENGLISH IS THE SECOND OFFICIAL LANGUAGE

Now English is the second official language in India. English is the language of interactional commerce. About 3,000 newspapers are published in India in the English language. Over 80 per cent of the world's electronically stored information is in English and two-thirds of the world's scientists read in English. English is an official language in over 75 of the world's territories. If the rest of the world is not talking English, they are borrowing English words to add to their own language. For example the Japanese go on a "pikunikku" (picnic). Almost all computer terms in Russian are taken from English.

Students should learn English because today it is the language of the world. Today knowledge of foreign languages is especially important because they are the main and the most efficient means of information exchange between the people of our planet.

MOSCOW KREMLIN AND RED SQUARE

There is a lot of шпрых in Russia, but first of all foreign tourists visit the capital of our country, Moscow, its political, economic, commercial and cultural centre. They dream of visiting Red Square, which is called the heart of Moscow. Moscow Kremlin is a symbol of the whole country, not just Moscow. The Kremlin is the oldest part of the city where Grand Prince Yury Dolgorukiy built a fortress that was first mentioned in the chronicles in 1147. The Kremlin houses a complex of 15th-19th-century buildings, including the Grand Kremlin Palace, Armory Chamber, the Senate, the current official residence of the Russian president, churches, and examples of Russian cast work such as the Tsar Cannon and the Tsar Bell. Red Square, which dates back to the 14th century, is home to Saint Basil's Cathedral, the State Historical Museum,

THE TOWER OF LONDON

Most of London sights, such as the Tower, the Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, Trafalgar Square, and others are famous all over the world.

The Tower of London is one of the most famous and most interesting places in the city. The Tower of London was founded in the 11th century by William the Conqueror. The Tower in the past was a fortress, a palace, and a prison. Though the kings were born, lived and were married there, it happened also that kings and queens were murdered in the Tower. It was said that whoever held the keys to the Tower, held the keys to the kingdom.

Now the Tower is a museum and the Crown jewels and other treasures are kept there. Now the only inhabitants of the Tower are ravens. There is a legend that the Tower will fall if it loses its ravens.

ENGLISH IS THE MAJOR INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE

English is the major international language for communication in such areas as science, technology, business and mass media.
